

XM Satellite Radio has been a godsend to our community that is located in the North Carolina area. We normally do not get but 3 -4 stations from Charlotte because of our terrain and hills. Until I got Satellite radio I could not even get a sports score. When I travel to other cities I use the traffic report to help me navigate and get around. Without which I would have no knowledge of traffic situations.